IMMORTAL RAIN

VOLUME 5

BY KAORI OZAKI

HAMBURG // LONDON // LOS ANGELES // TOKYO

Shuren and Eury's inspection of the long-abandoned "Angel's Graveyard" is cut short when Shuren receives news of the rebirth of Yuse Collabell. Later, Shuren returns to the Graveyard with the newly born Yuse, whom she believes to be the reincarnation of her dead son, Ys. But "Ys" is no ordinary child. At birth, he already has the appearance of a small boy, walking and talking and...plotting. Shuren's team attacks Rain, and after a savage battle, Rain is mortally wounded by one of the monstrous Angels under Yuse's control. Suddenly, a massive explosion destroys the facility, and upon waking, Machika is told that Rain could not possibly have survived.

Do you have any other requests? Send me a letter I read all of them! The writer throws me away since I started the series

Both Machiko and I were really doing our best on this 10th volume. But you all told us to Mathiaslele and ang. Glad that sends me from the lonely nights. Thanks. See you in volume six

I chose not letters asking me "who is the most popular character" or "please have a vote on the most popular characters"

So I put up a vote location on my home page on the internet

Here are the top ten starting from July 2009. Fraze did surprisingly well

Yep... ended with another of Machiko's falling shorts.

Heh! Though this ended in a monthly publication, nothing changed. This is Ode, the one who never picks up her publication page. Hey? Well, I'm done at drawing. I wanted impatiently into the second part of Mathiaslele. Let's of things have been added but nothing taken away, or there's nothing I can say for sure. I think there are many things I need to get back to. Thanks for having the guts to read these in real time.

So let me draw you a lineup of the characters.

Here ya go

This is the most unapologetically macho Kan. The most glamorous of the Mathiaslele characters is Ryle. Thanks! Please don't take this picture seriously. These characters are different, so it's difficult trying to keep them straight throughout the books.

IT WOULD BE PERFECTLY SO CONVENIENT

IF I'M LUCKY I COULD CONQUER THE WORLD!

HIGH SCHOOLITY!
